CARONDELIER Mo., Aug. 17—11:40 A. M., A great crowd of bruisers, thieves and bummers have arrived to witness the prige fight between Allen and Gallagher. It is conceded the fight will be desperate, and there are apprehensions of aloud-shed Tom Allen got aboard the steamer Louis ville at this point. The fight will take place on the Illinois shore below Jefferson Barracks. The prize fighting party, composed of Gallagher and his men, are going lown the river. There is immense ax-itement among the prize-fightista and that sort of people.

The light will take place at two o'clock.

NEAR PREVELY STATION, IRON MOUNTAIN R. R., Mo., August 17, 1869.

The steamer bouisville, with the prize against gover or board, reached Fasher's Island, Illinois, a few minutes before 12 to clock. All was quiet on the trip down. Gallagher took up his quarters in the captain office, and was the recipient of much attention. Allen was quietly stowed away in a state-room and riept aonudly during most of the trip.

The total receipts from the step were $1.536 50—being $1,000 less than at the McCoole and Allen excursion. The boat was chartered for $442. The battletground was the same accepted and Allen fought. The following are among the mored ports in attendance: Patry Reardow, Ton Kelly, Nelson Durham.

Troops in Avisons have made a successful common of the wounded a number of indicate and desired consideration with the sentence of the sentence o Two Men Shee at a Ball.

Yesterday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock, a fight occurred at a ball on Market street, between Serentecenth and Righteenth streets, Andy Webpler and a giant by the same of Fotisme or Valentine Grasshardi, "Otherwise Grouchy, being the principals. There was a woman in the case, and Webpler drew a four shooting revolver on Grasshardi. At this point of the disturbance, Henry Eberhardi, a friend of Webpler's, esteed the pictol, which, in the course of the struggle was discharged, the ball striking the wrist of a man named Fred Einmerman and entering the back of Eberhardi, bringing the unfortunate peacemaker to the floor, dangerously wounded. Webpler was in great distress when he discovered that he had shot his friend, and readily gare himself up to the police. In the City Court he was helld in $400 in two cases brought against him, one for the shooting of Eberhardi. Eberhardi, who lives at 450 Congress street, was doing well yestenday shemoons, though his woond is expected. Two Men Shot at a Balt. Personal Name Pork Assessed at 500 Mg/H IJ.
